

1 ED: it's easy to see our next guest is scry but it also may be she works as a spy she's dear sweet
2 lovable old and flab help thank you dear it's so nice to see you again

3 B: Do you mind backing off a step or two? muskel breath is melting my corses St. Fogs up the 4 glasses

5 ED: I must say aunt Blabby that you look terrific for a woman of your age.

6 B: Of course, you must say that otherwise you'd be on Merv Griffin. You better tell me I look 7 good.

8 ED: How are you?

9 B: I'm fine.

10 ED: I don't mean to be personal but just how old are you?

11 B: Well, I don't want to tell you how old I am. But all I can tell you is Millard Philmore was a 12 lousy lover. Remember him?

13 ED: Oh, I do remember him.

14 B: Well, nobody else does. Obviously. is sure a full of bounce.

15 ED: What do you attribute to? what's that? You're full of bounce? what do you attribute that to?

16 B: Rubber panty hose. Keeps the sapping. Gives me a little lift. You sure are full of the old is that 17 French for blo look.

18 B: SO, I decided to do something worthwhile with my life.

19 ED: What's that?

20 B: I volunteered for an important job.

21 ED: That's marvelous. What kind of a job is it?

22 B: Well, I can't tell you. It's Hush Hush. All I can tell you that it involves the government.

23 ED: Our government?

24 B: Yes, our government. ~~Not Ronald Reagan, of course, our government,~~ you dummy.

25 ED: GAL, you PEAK my curiosity.

26 B: Well, that's the only thing I I've peaked in a lot of years. I don't Peak as often AS I used to.

27 ED: Can't you give us a hint of what your government job iS?

28 J: Well, all I can tell you is I wasn't hired to teach President ~~Ford~~ TRUMP to walk. You see I'm I'm
29 sworn to secrecy. I don't want this to get out. ~~they Warrior~~

30 ED: Who who are they?

31 B: They are those who don't want us to know about them because they don't want to make it
32 too easy for Woodward and Bernstein. ~~They wrote the book the final days and All the~~
33 ~~President's Men also Motion Picture Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein. You probably heard~~
34 ~~about them.~~

35 ED: Can you tell us the name of the government organization that you work for?

36 B: No, I'm sworn to secrecy but I can give you the initials.

37 ED: What are they?

38 B: C.I.A.

39 ED: You work for the CIA? Well, so much for secrecy.

40 B: That's that. Believe it or not I've gone to work as a spy for the CIA.

41 ED: CIA

42 B: Well, they don't know Woodward and Bernstein either. How would they know the CIA? could 43 be the COA a CPI. Who cares! But I did I want you to believe me believe me for the sake of this 44 sketch it's nothing else I believe.

45 ED: What in the world made you join the CIA?

46 B: Seemed like a good way to meet ~~Frank Sinatra~~ (SYLVESTER STELLONE) I wanted to do
47 something for my country. I owe the country a lot. it's been good to me. I'm patriotic. Red 48 white and blue is a part of me.

49 ED: Of course, you're referring to the flag.

50 B: No, my varicose veins. ~~There's no more thrilling sight in this world than to see him unfurled is~~
51 ~~the is the U~~

52 ED: Is the CIA going to use you?

53 B: I hope so. I could use a little using. Yes, the worst way they could use me what makes been 54 so lonely since the mister died... went in the summer of 52. Just like that. He told me how he 55 went... hard as a carp.

56 ED: What makes you think you'll make a good spY?

57 B: What? I can't understand it when you're giggling.

58 ED: What makes you think that you will make a good spY?

59 B: Cuz, I'll sleep with aNYone to get information. I'd make a great spy.

60 ED: What makes the CIA think that they can use senior citizens like yourself for spy work?

61 B: Well, I wouldn't want this to get out but the Communists have infiltrated the gray Panthers.

62 ED: Oh, that's incredible. What what would the Communist want with senior citizens?

63 B: Well, they want us to agitate and protest and fight the government for food and rent and 64 decent jobs.

65 ED: Well, that's communism.

66 B: No, that's capitalism. Communism is when you get it. ~~two three four~~ ()

67 ED: It just hard for me to believe. Why would the CIA want you as an agent?

68 B: Communists are infiltrating the old people. My doctor is a communist.

69 ED: What? Your doctor is a communist.?

70 B: Very good reading. Yes, very excellent reading. You really set them up. Give me that again.

71 ED: What? Your doctor is a communist?

72 B: That's good. Yes, real good. Yes my doctor, He looked down my throat the other day and he

73 said "Better red than dead" I knew he was a communist when he said that.

74 B: Your straight line got more LAUGHS than MY joke.

75 ED: How do you combat red propaganda among old folks?

76 B: Well, tonight I'm going to Fan unrest and cause rioting in the streets.

77 ED: How will you do this?

78 B: Take off my clothes in a topless bar.

79 ED: Now is it necessary for you to go underground?

80 B: Never say underground to an old lady. Bad choice of words.

81 ED: What do they call you, Aunt Blabby? Do you have a code name?

82 B: I have a code name. My code name is PRUNE LEADER. You know, you've heard those war

83 movies calling PrunE leader... PR leader.

84 ED: Perhaps we shouldn't discuss your Alias...

85 B: No, we'll leave that to my Proctologist. Let him worry about... oh my oh yes

86 ED: Do you have a disguise?

87 B: I don't need a disguise I just rearranged my wrinkles. You know moving around a little.

88 ED: Well, have you had any experience at all spying on people?

89 B: Yes, I used to be a chambermaid at the Holiday Inn.

90 ED: Well, you know everybody hears stories about spies, secret agents being shot to death,
91 stabbed to death, poisoned to death. What made you do it?

92 B: It's a living. Besides, I did it because the head of the CIA is new. You know George Bush, I
93 WAS behind him all the way. I've done my best work behind a Bush.

94 ED: What are the advantages of having big stars like ~~Mr. Sinatra~~ (MR. STALLONE) as a CIA agent?

95 B: Well, for one thing, if STALLONE were ever captured, the Russians would never get any 96 information out of him under interrogation.

97 ED: Why not?

98 B: He never GAVE interviews.

99 ED: Could you give us an example of what you DID?

100 B: Thought you were going there. For a minute I thought MY pacemaker went OUT on me.

101 ED: Give us an example of what you DID for the CIA.

102 B: Yes, I went to party at the Russian Embassy of that tape recorder in my bazier

103 ED: You had a tape recorder in your brazier?

104 B: Yes

105 ED: What did you get, mostly small talk?

106 B: ~~They buy that but they don't buy Woodward and bir.~~ Every once in a while you know you'd 107 latch on to some juicy tidbits about missiles or planes or military information.

108 ED: Oh and that's the kind of information that you would pass on.

109 B: Don't say "pass on" to an old person.

110 ED: DID YOU carry a weapon in your CIA work?

111 B: No, but in case I'm caught I carry a poison suppository. Yes, I do.

112 ED: A poison suppository?

113 B: They're delicious, by the way, did you know that?

114 ED: What techniques do you use to get your information?

115 B: Well, senior citizens are easy to spy on. You see, an older guy will tell you anything if you give 116 him the right kind of sponge bath.

117 ED: Have you ever been surprised in some undercover act.

118 B: Never surprised. Eyes bored many times, man and by...what this is long isn't it? Out here a
119 long time...

120 ED: What are the risks in being a spy?

121 B: What, what are the risks?

122 B: I'm making it long aren't I? I'm making this longer than it should be by repeating. RISKS. YES
123 bet you there ARE RISKS, lots of dangers.

124 ED: What are they?

125 B: Well, what ...can ...you mind if I sit down... just takes any longer. Once I walked into the place
126 they grabbed me threw me on a torture rack stretched my entire body

127 ED: Did you talk?

128 B: I said keep going you're getting the wrinkles out.

129 ED: And what else happened?

130 B: Well, they liced () me with a bull whip, stomped on me with their boots.

131 ED: Well, where did this happen in Russia or China?

132 B: No, that was in a Hollywood...A slave auction. I'm going again next week.

133 ED: Have you ever bugged anyone?

134 B: I used to bug my fourth husband. He just wanted to sleep all the time. I bugged him a lot

135 ED: What are you working on now beside staying awake?

136 B: Oh, thank you. thank you. I'm trying to find The Spy Who Sold the formula for Preparation H
137 to the Russians. It's bad enough when they shrink our wheat but you know we don't need to 138 rest of that.

139 ED: Are you on a secret assignment right now?

140 B: I have to leave right now.

141 ED: what is it ?

142 B: Well, I I have to leave to follow one ~~Ronald~~ DONALD. It gets so difficult when you get older. I

143 have to follow follow...(SHe exits)

144
